Selfridges,
Birmingham

◀ Curve balls

No, it's not a giant studded pillow, it's Selfridges in downtown Birmingham, UK. Architect Jan Klapicky (Future Systems) likes an organic, space-age look. The store's eye-popping exterior has 15,000 aluminium discs on a blue patented by Yves Klein.

FAIR LEATHER FRIENDS

Tuck your spare change in a turtle and shell out in style with the Hermès range of coin purses. Bananas, bears, pigs and pears are also available, among others. From $1415. (02) 9287 3200.

White, silver and black leather, $270; white and pink leather, $250

⬆ Ecco swings

The Ecco Golf Collection has six models in its elite club; in addition to those above, there's a "cognac" (brown) and white in croc leather, and three Gore-Tex models – ideal when fishing your ball from a lake, but great for other golfing feats, too. $230-$560. 1300 138 099.

⬇ Put the boot into Chanel

Possibly the world's first designer (gridiron) footy, but is it just for kicks or a whole new ball game for Chanel?

What next – the little black rugby jersey? Scrum

No.5? $237.

(02) 9233 4800.

Football from Chanel Sports Accessory Collection

⬇ To dial for

The Serene mobile phone by Bang & Olufsen and Samsung is a sleek little number with a circular keypad hinged to a screen beneath it, although a desktop mode (see below) allows use in the more conventional position. $1795. (02) 9266 6259.
