Luxury en route: If you only pack one beauty product in your carry-on, make it Yves Saint Laurent's Top Secrets Restoring Skincare Palette, $105, (02) 9931 8888. On the top: a fruity-fragranced lip balm, on the bottom: a light but hydrating face cream that just keeps on giving.

Supermarket buy of the month

It's designed to work in the pm but Nivea Visage Expert Lift Night Cream, $29.99, 1800 103 023, feels more like a gel than a thick overnighter, so it does just as marvellous a job at pepping up tired skin when you haven't had any shut-eye at all.

It looks better suited to a surgery than your vanity, but the novel applicator on Freeze Frame With Inhibox, $89, from Myer, 1800 811 611, means you get the perfect amount of wrinkle-cream with each pump, bang-on the needy spots.

More practical than jewellery...

La Prairie's latest fragrance collection is about celebrating women everywhere, whether they wear silver, gold or platinum.

Sweet, like strawberries and cream:

La Prairie Life Threads Silver EDP.

Buy it for mum:

La Prairie Life Threads Gold EDP.

One to share with your man:

La Prairie Life Threads Platinum EDP.

All $210 (50mL) each, 1800 649 849.

The two-step shuffle:

The first side, a lip contouring cream, smoothes fine lines along the top of the mouth, followed by a plumping cream that makes lips look soft and naturally fuller.

Roll with it...

The clever paint-roller applicator looks novel, but it fits into nooks and crannies on the face, like the nose and under the eye area perfectly and the more you roll it, the more seamless the foundation gets.

L'Oréal Paris Roll'on True Match Perfecting Roll'on Foundation, $34.95, 1300 659 259.

We've been through several bottles already...

Packed with essential vitamins and eucalyptus, John Frieda Root Awakening Health Boosting Leave In Conditioner, $19.99, 1800 468 318, protects from heat damage and manages to leave hair (super-fine stuff included) silky and full without feeling heavy at the roots.
